I love the Tarpon Lodge. My wife and I go there for lunch every so often. It's got an awesome view, great food, and the lunch prices can't be beat.

Excellent story.

I found this website through the News-Press.com blog, and I am very impressed. I love the way you go into detail in your articles instead of just skimming the surface. This article is a perfect example of what I mean. I've never been to the Tarpon Lodge, Pine Island always seems so out of the way to me, but after reading what you've written, I feel as though I've already been there. Your articles read like a good book. And the pictures are always fantastic. You make me want to try writing.
